DETAILED ACTION

Acknowledgment is made of the amendment filed on 12/18/08. Claims 1-11 are currently pending.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Skinner (US 5,441,158).

Skinner teaches a mobile device (reader 178) for collecting and validating collected articles (garments 20), each article equipped with a transponder and comprising means for moving along a runway in a predetermined path and means for receiving articles collected during this displacement one by one (col. 7, lines 33-43 and figure 1), wherein the mobile device further comprises radio-frequency interrogation means for obtaining identifying information on each of the articles collected by the device and comparison means for comparing the identifying information obtained with references relative to a determined order for articles and thus for validating the collected articles as the articles are collected along the runway (col. 6, lines 46-55);

Art Unit: 2876

the device wherein said RF interrogation means comprise an RF antenna coupled to an electronic module for processing the identifying information issuing from transponders;

the device wherein said RF antenna and said means for receiving the collected articles form a single integrated module; and the device wherein said electronic module comprises a memory means for storing said references relative to a determined order for the articles and said comparison means for comparing said references relative to the determined order with the identifying information issuing from the transponders.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments filed 12/18/08 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

In response to the argument that Skinner does not teach the mobile device moving along a runway and having means for collecting articles, the examiner contends that the mobile device (reader 178) does indeed move along a rail so to speak since the reader moves from a reading position to a retracted position along a horizontal arm 184 (col. 7, lines 43-62). Furthermore, the reader 178 does indeed "receive" collected articles in that the reader takes in information transmitted from the article, the article having already been collected.

Conclusion

4. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

Art Unit: 2876

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
